DAD COMPLETES 3,000-MILE BIKE RIDE TO TURKEY

Restaurant owner's trip has so far raise £3.5k for hospice

FINISHED: Mehmet with his mother, Munire, at the end of the ride

William Mata

william.mata@hertssexnews.co.uk

RESTAURANT owner Mehmet Cakmak was given a hero's welcome on his return to Harlow after his marathon cycle ride to Turkey.

The father-of-four decided to take on the 3,000-mile challenge to his home city of Ankara after turning 50 last year.

During his 51 days in the saddle, Mehmet passed through Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Greece before entering Turkey.

He returned to Harlow to a party organised by Harlow bike shop Hub + Spoke. Postcards he sent home from each country he passed through now adorn the wall of Café Pizzeria along with a map, photos and a bike.

His efforts have so far raised £3,500 for St Clare Hospice at Haslingwood.

Mehmet said: "I really enjoyed it and I would recommend doing it to anyone. I wanted to do something to influence youngsters."

CYCLING HERO: Mehmet outside his restaurant

Man killed in collision with vehicle

A PEDESTRIAN was killed in a road accident in Harlow on Tuesday night.

The 28-year-old victim, who had not been named as the Star went to press but who lived in the town, died after he was involved in a collision with a car in Katherine's Way shortly before 11pm.

Paramedics were unable to save the man who died at the scene. The 24-year-old driver of the green Vauxhall Corsa was uninjured.

A section of the road was closed for almost seven hours while emergency services were on the scene and police accident investigators carried out a forensic examination of the area. It reopened at 5.55am yesterday (Wednesday).

■ Inquiries are ongoing and police are asking witnesses to contact the Serious Collision Investigation Unit on the non-emergency 101 number or email collisionappeal@essex.pnn.police.uk.

Police seek witnesses to stabbing

TWO men were stabbed in a Harlow underpass in what police have described as a targeted attack in the early hours of yesterday (Wednesday).

The victims, both 19, sustained injuries in the attack which took place in the underpass between Little Pynchons and Bush Fair at about 12.30am.

One suffered wounds to his head, arms and legs while the other suffered wounds to his hands and face. Their injuries are described as non-life-threatening.

Witnesses are asked to call 101, Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111, or alternatively www.crimestoppers-uk.org.

Water Gardens penalty shoot-out scores money for charity

FATHER'S Day and the Euro 2016 tournament were celebrated as The Water Gardens held a penalty shoot-out with the proceeds going to St Clares Hospice.

Harlow Town FC organised the shoot-out against their own goalies as well as providing mini Soccer Skills sessions for the children.

There were great prizes to be won on the day including an England Euro 16 Official Football shirt from Sports Direct, who also supplied the footballs, a Harlow Town FC football shirt, and family meals at The Water Gardens restaurants.

Everyone who took part was also an instant winner, receiving a prize of a Toblerone bar courtesy of Poundworld.

Beryl Murphy, manager of The Water Gardens, said: "It was a really fun event, supporting a great local charity with the pride of Harlow, Harlow Town FC.

"Hundreds turned up to support, hold their nerve and score – and all raising money for a great cause."

Foodbank needs your help to run collection

Charity helping people in time of need also seeks van sponsor

Gemma Gardner
gemma.gardner@hertsexnews.co.uk

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help Harlow Foodbank with collections at the town's three Tesco stores over a two-day period.

People are needed to spare a couple of hours to share foodbank shopping lists with Tesco shoppers on Friday, July 1 and Saturday, July 2 as part of a national scheme by the supermarket chain.

Since launching in 2009, the foodbank has provided emergency food to 17,360 people in Harlow and the surrounding area, and on average, feeds 229 people each month.

"I feel bad taking the help," said one user of the service. "but I know my children would have been hungry and upset and I wouldn't have known what to do as I have had no money coming in for three and a half weeks and still haven't got it sorted out."

The charity receives regular donations from 57 churches, 37 schools and three supermarkets in the Harlow area.

These are used to provide emergency food supplies for people until official agencies are in a position to help them.

Gary Knott, director of community services at Michael Roberts Charitable Trust - who run the foodbank - said: "It's for people who have got a job and a regular income and then, all of a sudden, a crisis hits.

"Then with the price of fuel, the price of food, the price of all sorts of extra costs, it's a real struggle to put food on the table."

The trust has also recently made permanent the pilot Bounty Club scheme.

Bounty Club runs alongside the work of Harlow Foodbank and in partnership with two local fresh food companies Bidvest and Brakes in Harlow and Swithenbank in Hoddesdon.

The project's aim has been to help reduce companies' low-dated/end-of-line surplus fresh food, which would normally be treated as wastage, by picking it up and redistributing it into the community via front-line professional care and support agencies.

HELPING: Left, Robert Halfon talks to Gary Knott at Harlow Foodbank's warehouse and, right, with the Bounty Club and Foodbank vans and Mr Knott, Harlow Star news editor Gemma Gardner and Kevin Tierney is run by Kevin Tierney, who works seven days a week for the club following his retirement.

He explained: "The success of this project has established the Bounty Club as a permanent part of the charity's work in Harlow, and to help us in our operations we have recently acquired a new refrigerated van."

Lynn Bengie, Family Support Worker at Longwood Primary Academy added: "Harlow Foodbank enables us to provide a free breakfast for children who need it and would not necessarily get one at home. We consider this a valuable partnership as it has also helped students to improve their punctuality and attendance."

A sponsor is being sought for the Bounty Club van to ensure the long-term future of the programme.

The foodbank network is coordinated by the Trussell Trust.

For more information about the charity visit mrcr.org.uk or search Harlow Foodbank on Facebook.

Man grabbed girl and then stroked hair

A MAN who grabbed a teenage girl and started stroking her hair is being hunted by police.

The 14-year-old victim was followed by the man, who she did not know, as she was walking from Church Langley to Potter Street between 8.30am and 8.40am on Friday.

He made an attempt to talk to her on a footpath between Hadley Grange and Potter Street but as they reached the underpass between Carters Mead and Nichols Field he grabbed by the shoulder.

He then started to stroke her hair before leaving the scene.

The girl told police the man is white, around 40 years old, of stocky build and spoke with what she described as a local accent. He wore dark jeans and a black zip-up hooded top with the hood up.

■ Anyone who witnessed the incident or saw anyone matching the description is asked to call 101 or alternatively Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

OAP injured as mugger steals bag

A PENSIONER suffered serious injuries to her shoulder and hand after she was mugged while out walking in Harlow.

The victim, who is in her 70s, fell to the ground after the robber grabbed her handbag. She sustained severe bruising, a fractured left shoulder and a fracture to her right hand.

The robbery, which happened at 10.30am last Tuesday, took place on a path which runs from Southern Way, along Shawbridge and Hollyfield to Pyenest Road.

The suspect is described as white, 5ft 5in- 5ft 8in tall and of slim build and was wearing a navy or black hooded top.

The brown leather handbag contained the victim's purse, which was later recovered, as well as a red umbrella decorated with giraffes and a black Samsung Galaxy S3 mobile phone in a green leather case.

■ Police are asking witnesses to the robbery to call on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Father completes cycling challenge

Dad already planning repeat of his epic journey

William Mata

william.mata@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

EVEN after pedalling more than 3,000 miles from Harlow to the Turkish capital of Ankara, Mehmet Cakmak could have carried on cycling.

"It is quite a come down now that I am home," said the father-of-four, who has raised £3,500 for St Clare Hospice after completing the marathon ride in 51 days. "I want to be back on my bike. I really enjoyed it and I would recommend doing it to anyone. I wanted to do something to influence youngsters."

"When I finished I felt a mixture of sadness that it was over; happiness that I had completed it and pride because my fitness was great. My bike became part of me."

The 50-year-old, who owns Café Pizzeria in Bush Fair, is already planning to repeat the ride, but this time in reverse - starting in Turkey and finishing in Harlow. "My aim is to cycle through as many countries as possible, perhaps through Italy and France," he said. "Now I am wondering if it really happened or if it was all a dream. To be back in one piece is another thing because it was tough. Anything could have happened."

Mehmet, who cycled through eight countries during the course of the ride, recalled one scary incident in Bulgaria. "Some people were close to giving me a hard time. I feared they might assault me or rob me," he said.

"They were in a car and they were closing behind me and I felt threatened, so I sped up on my bike and this petrol station appeared from nowhere. I quickly ran in and was able to rescue myself there."

NEARLY THERE: Mehmet on the outskirts of Ankara

Mehmet, who has always been a keen cyclist, left Harlow on April 16 with friends from bike shop Hub + Spoke Harlow. After catching a ferry to the Netherlands he cycled through Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Greece before crossing the Turkish border and finishing in Ankara.

Temperatures ranged from -2°C in the German mountains to 43°C in Turkey but amazingly he did not suffer a puncture until he arrived in Istanbul.

"My favourite part was going along the Danube river in Germany, it was really beautiful," said Mehmet, who lost three stone and grew a full beard over the course of the journey.

He said being separated from his family was the hardest part. "My wife [Karen] travelled to Ankara to meet me at the finish. My mother Munire, brother Ahmet and sister in law Tulin were there too. When I came back to Harlow, Hub + Spoke organised a surprise party for me."

Mehmet also thanked fitness group 30+ Bootcamp Essex for helping him to get in shape for the ride.

Jade Clarke, of St Clare Hospice, said: "The endurance and determination needed to complete a 3,000-mile cycle, completely unaided, across eight countries is just mind-blowing."

■ Mehmet's aims to raise £5,000 and he is still collecting on his online page. To make a donation, visit www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Mehmet-Cakmak.

The time has arrived to have your say

TODAY'S EU Referendum vote will be a defining moment for Britain on matters relating to security, sovereignty, immigration and law-making powers.

In Harlow more than 60,000 people are registered to vote. There are a total of 23 polling stations spread across the town and they will be open from 7am to 10pm.

All those registered to vote should have received a poll card which states the location of their polling station.

The question on the voting paper will be: "Should the United Kingdom remain a member of the European Union or leave the European Union?" Voters must put a cross in one of two boxes - 'Remain a member of the European Union' or 'Leave the European Union'.

Once the polling stations closes the ballot boxes will be taken to the Latton Bush Centre where the votes will be counted. The result for Harlow is expected at 2.30am.

The votes from council counts across the country will be collated at 12 regional centres. Once all these regional centres have reported in, the final result - in or out - will be officially declared from Manchester Town Hall.

It's just another form of bullying

SIR, I was both shocked and appalled to read about the poor man who hanged himself after being targeted by self-styled paedophile hunter Christopher Wood (Star, June 9).

What a truly sad and horrendous case. While recognising that Mr Wood is attempting to safeguard children in this way, he really needs to take a close look at what he is doing and needs to realise that there are vulnerable adults out there as well as vulnerable children.

Terry Hurford appeared to be a vulnerable man. He was obviously very lonely and at rock bottom in his personal life. Due to his fragile mental state and possibly out of curiosity, he was unfairly misled and lured by Mr Wood.

Did Mr Wood not think that he should find out more about Mr Hurford's very sad background before jumping in as judge and jury?

Perhaps the use of internet paedophile hunters to trick people into meeting underage individuals and then to hound them on internet sites should be looked into.

It could be asked who is policing these sites and the activity going on around them?

It all comes down to another form of bullying. Some cases may be worthy of investigation but others could involve individuals with mental health problems or who are at their wits end and need help, not blame.

Hop on board the 418 service

SIR, I'm sure people will be delighted to know that there is a bus service for Edinburgh Way (Letters, June 2). It is the 418 service to Loughton run by TrustyBus and has been running since April.

It goes past Harlow train station, the Toby Carvery, B&Q, Homebase, and Tesco on its journey.

Give TrustyBus a ring and I'm sure they can give you more details or pop to the information desk and get a timetable at the bus station. Happy travelling

Many reasons to be grateful

SIR, Following a fall, my doctor sent me to Princess Alexandra Hospital for an X-ray. From that first point of contact I could not fault the treatment I received.

The X-ray was carried out quickly and efficiently, after which a doctor examined the results and sent me to A&E.

Expecting a three-four hour wait, I was called within the hour and taken to have my hand plastered, the final layer in a colour of my choice.

It was all done very professionally and with a smile. Well done PAH and well done NHS.

SIR, Through the columns of the Star I would like to thank two people who helped me on a very wet and cold Tuesday morning last month.

They are the ABC cab driver who found my purse in his vehicle and the lady working in the BHS restaurant who was so kind and helpful and got me warmed up with hot coffee.

Thank you both so much, it is good to know there are still a lot of nice people around.

Support when times are hard

SIR, Whilst it is promising that unemployment in the UK has fallen, we know it's not all good news.

New research by Citizens Advice highlights the extent of insecure employment and the financial challenges it presents.

Some 4.5million people in England and Wales are now in insecure work, including temporary contracts, variable shifts and zero-hour contracts.

A lack of regular hours and guaranteed pay can cause huge uncertainty and stress, as workers may not know from week to week if they will be able to cover their bills or rent or put food on the table for their families.

As a charity helping people in financial hardship, this echoes what we regularly hear - 39 per cent of low income workers told us their outgoings outweigh their earnings, and 57 per cent would like to work more hours but cannot get the work.

In addition, 87 per cent of all low income households have seen no improvement to their financial situation within the last year.

Accessing welfare support can also be a challenge for those with fluctuating hours and pay. Therefore, we urge anyone who is struggling financially to use our free benefits calculator (Turn2us.org.uk) to check what help could be available.

It also includes a 'better-off' function to show how a change in hours or wages could affect benefits entitlements and overall household income.

Whilst more needs to be done to tackle insecure employment in the long term, we hope that we can help more people to find the support they need now which could make all the difference in easing some of the pressures they face.

Alison Taylor, director of operations
Turn2us, London W6 7NL

The EU referendum

If we get it wrong the vulnerable will suffer

SIR, I appreciate that should this letter be published today (Thursday, June 23) most people will have already voted in the referendum. Even so, I feel that as every vote will count I would like to make one last effort to persuade my neighbours to vote Remain.

I was very impressed with last week's front page story in which our community leaders urged the people of Harlow to vote to stay within the EU. These individuals are not politicians with an agenda but ordinary people who care deeply about our town and country.

It is fair to say that we have been assailed by both sides with highly questionable 'facts' about either leaving or remaining. Perhaps we should not be surprised given how passionate people are about this monumental decision.

Let us be in no doubt that today's vote will change our country and our personal lives for ever. If we get it wrong it will be the most vulnerable who will suffer most and that is why I am so very pleased that Harlow's independent community leaders have made their voices heard.

I would rather trust in the sound judgement of the people who run our schools, health services, businesses and creative arts than in those politicians who simply pander to our fears and prejudices.

Guy Mitchinson
Joyners Field, Harlow

Future outside EU will be in our own hands

SIR, Irrespective of all other considerations, the vote today is to decide who governs Britain and what political system this country will have in future.

The choice is to return to democracy and the ability to elect and dismiss our rulers or to stay in the EU and be ruled by faceless foreign bureaucrats who have no love for Britain or the British.

We have been enduring continuing scaremongering by the Remain group who tell us that we cannot flourish outside the EU. Similar campaigns have been visited upon Norway, Denmark, Sweden and Iceland in various votes taken in those countries and all the threats and lies have proved unfounded.

The future outside the EU will be in our own hands but to remain under its domination is not just to continue with the status quo. It will bring real lowering of conditions here, just as is happening now in Greece.

Let us act as this country has done for more than 800 years, with courage and determination. Let us have faith in our own abilities, for not to do so will result in no more democracy, no more England and no more Commonwealth.

Let us pass on to our children and grandchildren the freedom and self determination that we enjoyed before the EU. They will be eternally grateful.

Bullied teen to help others by scaling the O2

Charity ambassador's fundraising challenge

William Mata

william.mata@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A TEENAGER on a mission to beat bullying will test her head for heights when she climbs to the top of London's O2 Arena next month.

Rebecca Howlett is taking on the challenge to raise funds for the support charity Bullies Out and has set herself a target of £200.

The 14-year-old, who lives with parents Stephen and Michelle and older brother Philip, 17, in Elmbridge, Harlow, decided she wanted to do something positive to help others after being on the receiving end of bullying.

Mum Michelle said: "I am really proud of her. Bullies Out is based in Cardiff and they help people who have been bullied in any way by helping them get their confidence back."

Rebecca, who has recently become a youth ambassador for the charity, will climb the roof of the former Millennium Dome on July 2. Two weeks later she will attend her first meeting as an ambassador.

"She has been bullied and she got to the point where she had enough and does not want to be the victim any more," said Michelle. "It was at the point when she was really low that she decided she wanted to do something about it to help others."

"In her role she is asked to raise funds to speak to schools and spread the word about Bullies Out. She also takes part in charity events that she has organised and shares stories on Facebook."

Rebecca will be a team of eight when she climbs the O2. "There is a path that leads to the top of the venue and it should take around an hour to complete," said Michelle. "I'd rather it be her than me."

In the past Rebecca has raised more than £700 for other charities including Cancer Research UK. Earlier this month she was presented with a Jack Petchey Achievement Award (see story on page 6).

Judges rule 14-year prison sentence for cocaine dealer was not excessive

A DRUGS dealer who ran a multi-million pound cocaine operation from his home in Roydon has failed to have his 14-year prison sentence reduced.

Jay Bourne, 41, was caught with 12kg of high quality cocaine with a street value of £2.5m when police raided his house in Barn Hill.

He was jailed last October after pleading guilty to possession of cocaine with intent to supply.

He challenged the length of his sentence on the grounds it was too severe but on Thursday his arguments were rejected by three judges sitting in the Criminal Appeal Court in London.

The court was told how a police raid uncovered the huge quantity of cocaine in Bourne's garage and kitchen.

However, his legal team argued it had been wrong for the trial judge to sentence him on the basis that he played a leading role in the operation.

They said documents showed Bourne was only paid a few hundred pounds for his trouble and that far from being a kingpin he was "effectively a delivery driver".

But Judge Neil Ford, sitting with Lord Justice Davis and Mr Justice Jay, said: "This was a very large-scale drug operation, dealing with kilo blocks of cocaine and hundreds of thousands of pounds on a weekly basis."

"Bourne was organising, buying and selling on a commercial scale and had close contact with the original source."

The judge said Bourne had enjoyed significant financial benefits and the fruits of a drug-tainted lifestyle, adding: "The sentence was undeniably severe but was not manifestly excessive. This appeal is refused."

Shooters raise £55k for PAH breast cancer unit

A TEAM of fundraisers set their sights high when they took part in a clay pigeon shoot in aid of the Princess Alexandra Hospital breast unit charity.

The group of 130 spent the day at the Royal Berkshire Shooting School in West Berkshire. The event included an auction with lots including an evening of music with world-famous violinist So-ock Kim, tickets to the Goodwood Festival of Speed and a private box for 12 people to watch an NFL match at Wembley Stadium.

By the end of the day more than £55,000 had been raised for the charity.

More arrests in drink and drive crackdown

THE number of people charged with drinking and driving since the start of Essex Police's summer crackdown has risen to 27.

Figures released by Essex Police on Tuesday show that 12 people have also been arrested on suspicion of drug driving and released on bail pending laboratory testing of the samples they provided.

Among those due to appear in court is a 44-year-old Harlow woman who was arrested in Fernhill Lane, Harlow, at 5.15am on Monday for failing to supply a sample of breath.

In brief

Man treated for head injury

HARLOW: A man suffering from a head injury was taken to hospital on Sunday afternoon.

Paramedics were called to Cambridge Road near Harlow Mill at about 1.40pm and treated the man, thought to be in his 40s, at the scene before taking him to hospital.

Police officers were also sent to the scene but were not required.

Return of speciality markets

EPPING: A taste of the continent will be on offer when the town hosts two speciality markets.

The first, an Italian market, will be held in the High Street from 9am on Saturday. It will be followed on Saturday, July 16 by a French market.

Town clerk Beverley Rumsey said: "The council decided a couple of years ago to introduce continental markets and they have proved very popular additions to the town."

Fun for all at military event

ESSEX: Hundreds of troops, veterans and cadets will be taking part in Essex Armed Forces Day, one of the region's largest military events, on Saturday, July 2.

Attractions will include performances by the Band of the Parachute Regiment and the Colchester Military Wives Choir; a demonstration by the Portsmouth Field Gun Team and an RAF flypast.

It will be held at the Orsett Showground from 10am. Advance tickets cost £5 while admission on the day is £10. Entry for under 12s, serving Armed Forces personnel, veterans and cadets is free.

AWARDS: Young people are honoured

Harvey Mead

Pupils praised for their effort

Gemma Gardner

gemma.gardner@hertsessexnews.co.uk

AN incredible 62 students from nine Harlow schools came together to receive Jack Petchey Foundation Achievement Awards.

The event honoured Achievement Award winners aged 11-25 who were nominated by their peers and leaders, winning awards for a variety of achievements. Seven adults were also celebrated with Leader Awards.

Harlow Council chairman Edna Stevens said: "It has been a really fantastic evening. I am always proud of the young people from Harlow but especially tonight. This is a fantastic reminder to anyone who puts down young people of how inspirational they really are."

Winners included Burnt Mill Academy's Charlie Manly, 15, who found a wallet containing a large amount of cash near the Harlow Playhouse and contacted the police as he feared that the owner would miss so much money.

The police were able to trace the owner through homeless charity Streets2Homes.

Rebecca Howlett, 14, goes to Stewards Academy.

Rebecca was nominated for her amazing charity fundraising on behalf of the NSPCC and Children in Need. In September she took part in the Gherkin Challenge, managing to get to the top of the Gherkin in London in 16 minutes on a fractured ankle.

Harvey Mead, 15, attends Mark Hall Academy. Harvey struggled in Key Stage 3, had low attendance and no self-confidence. Now in Year 10, he is a key member of the school community and has been elected deputy head boy.

Alexander Cockayne, 15, is at Sir Charles Kao UTC. Alexander attended the Epping Youth Conference at the last minute, where he participated in debates adding his voice to local councillors and Members of Parliament. He was the youngest representative of the UTC to do so.

Margaret (Meg) Gumble, 14, goes to St Mark's West Essex Catholic School. She was nominated by a member of the Student Liturgy

Group for the significant contribution she makes to the life of the school.

She helps to organise services and will do readings and presentations.

Meg is also a school council member who helps make decisions about the school. In addition she has even spoken at the local church in front of a large congregation on behalf of the Catholic Youth Service.

The awards ceremony was held at Harlow Playhouse earlier this month. Each winner receives £200 and a medal.

for their hard work by Jack Petchey Foundation at Harlow Playhouse ceremonies

They're all stars in their own way

William Mata

william.mata@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE achievements of Harlow's talented youngsters and behind-the-scenes stars were celebrated at the Jack Petchey Foundation Achievement Awards.

Members of 12 groups were presented with awards by town MP Robert Halfon at the ceremony at Harlow Playhouse last Wednesday.

After a nomination process, 53 young people and eight adult leaders were honoured.

The groups to pick up awards were: Harlow Ballet Association, Livewire Trust, Razed Roof, All Ability Sports and Leisure, Phoenix Theatre School, Harlow Rock School, Harlow Steel Band, Cross-keys Netball Club, BATTS Table Tennis Club, Ridsen Wood FC, Air Cadets 2317 SQN and Hip Hop Pop.

Proud

Michael Branwell, artistic director of Harlow Ballet Association, said he was proud to see members of his school win eight young people's awards and one adult leader's award.

He said: "I have been the association's Jack Petchey co-ordinator for 10 years and I always feel extremely proud and extremely grateful to Sir Jack.

"The best, the oldest and the youngest dancers are always going to get the bigger parts but the Jack Petchey Awards gives us a chance to recognise those who have done special things.

"They may have not had the big parts and are not the stars but they are stars in their own way. They have made progress that is noteworthy."

Mr Branwell praised the teaching and help provided by Barry Gray, who took the adult leader award, and also the progress of 13-year-old Lara Brace who has an autism spectrum disorder.

Razed Roof is an inclusive theatre and singing group for young people with, and without, learning difficulties and disabilities.

Mandy Jacobs, who teaches sessions with the group, took home an adult leaders award and Razed Roof paid tribute to her in a statement.

"Mandy has been a passionate advocate for our inclusive theatre group for the past 10 years," read the citation.

"She is totally committed to developing the potential of each and every one of our students. There's nothing she wouldn't do for our performers.

"She has mended ripped costume, helped performers find their way off the stage, understudied with five minutes notice, unearthed lost props mid-show and performed alongside others to give the vital support and encouragement that makes everything possible."

Sir Jack Petchey is a self-made successful businessman who now helps young people's organisations in London and Essex through his charity which provides financial support.

Celebrating town's art

HARLOW: Shops in the Harvey Centre will be swapping mannequins for paintings as part of Harlow Art and Sculpture Trail.

More than 20 units will exhibit works of art by 21 artists from Saturday (June 25) to Saturday, July 9 and inviting the public to view them.

The trail, now in its third year, is organised as part of Essex Summer of Art and is completely free.

Harvey centre manager Bryan Young said: "Art and sculpture are such a poignant element of the town's heritage so it is only fitting that we celebrate this."

In addition to the exhibits, a behind-the-scenes tour of the trail and a chance to meet some of the artists involved will take place on July 9, starting at the Eastgate Gallery of Gatehouse Arts at 11am.

Caution for laser pair

STANSTED AIRPORT: Police have issued cautions to two men after they admitted shining a laser at a plane heading into Stansted Airport and at a police helicopter.

The National Police Air Service at Wattisham tweeted that its helicopter was "attacked" with a laser at 12.50am on Sunday.

It was also reported that a commercial airliner flying in to the Essex airport was targeted.

A 19-year-old from Chelmsford and a 19-year-old from Braintree were arrested on Monday on suspicion of shining a light at an aircraft in flight so as to dazzle or distract the pilot.

A spokesman for Essex Police said both admitted the offence while they were being held in custody and were issued with a caution.

High Street to close

ROYDON: The High Street will be closed to traffic for two nights later this month.

The road will be closed for 10 metres either side of the level crossing at Roydon station.

Works are scheduled to begin on June 28 for two nights between 12.30am and 5.30am.

Access for emergency service vehicles will be maintained throughout the works.

The alternative route for motorists will be via High Street, Harlow Road, Roydon Road, Elizabeth Way, A414, High Street and vice versa.

Raising money with healthy living month

A GROUP of fitness professionals are hoping to raise money for charity by helping people get healthy for the summer.

Harlow-based personal trainer Caroline Collins has joined Mitch Price, James Barr, Jem Bosworth and Martha Lambert for No Junk July 2016.

The social media fat-loss programme runs throughout the month, with participants receiving nutrition guidance and fitness advice.

Caroline said: "We are taking on the No Junk July challenge and we will be saying no to junk food. Hundreds of people lost weight and changed their eating habits last year and this year we have even more to offer. We will be posting workouts, pictures, blogs, videos and much more throughout the month to keep supporting everyone."

A free pack with the rules and nutritional advice will be available. The full six-week plan, which includes an exercise programme and meal and snack ideas, costs £24.99 - £4.99 of which goes to Diabetes UK.

Each person who signs up will receive a 10 per cent off voucher for Mike Varney Physiotherapy. To sign up visit www.facebook.com/NoJunkJuly.

I am living proof that test really saves lives

Former council chairman urges more to return cancer screening tests

Gemma Gardner

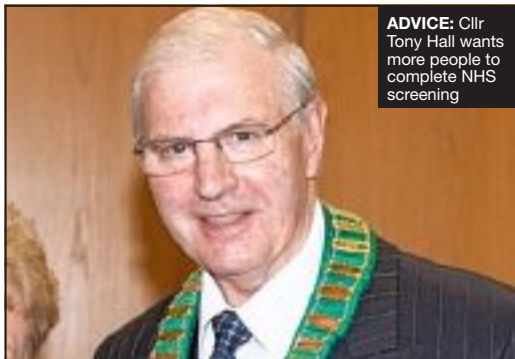

gemma.gardner@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A BOWEL cancer survivor is urging people in Harlow to attend screening appointments after he was diagnosed with the disease during routine tests.

Former Harlow Council chairman Tony Hall, 70, of Kingsdon Lane, Harlow, was told he had the disease earlier this year after he took part in the bowel and colon cancer screening programme.

Bowel cancer screening is currently available through the NHS to all men and women aged 60 to 74 in England, and this is in the process of being extended with a one-off tests for people aged 55 and above.

Cllr Hall, who was council chairman of the council at the time, said: "I would like to put on record though that this outcome is almost wholly down to early detection through the national bowel and colon cancer screening programme.

"When I returned the third of these two yearly tests I had no symptoms whatsoever. I was doing all the right things in terms of diet and exercise and, thankfully, submitting myself for all the tests and check-ups that 70 year olds should."

Following his diagnosis Cllr Hall, who has beaten cancer in the past, underwent key-hole surgery and was given follow-up chemotherapy.

But he was shocked to learn that less than a third of the tests sent out are returned completed.

"I am living proof that the test works and really does save lives," said Cllr Hall. "Caught early, bowel and colon cancer are among the most curable of cancers, three days in hospital, key-hole surgery, and many people can be back to a normal life in a week or two."

"Indeed, as vice chairman I opened Harlow's new Dunelm Store only four days after surgery."

"Many do not even need follow-up chemotherapy, though doctors err on the side of caution, as was my case.

"It was this reassurance that decided me to continue with my chairmanship, and I am glad I did."

"Despite very few ups and downs and one or two clashes with chemotherapy days, I was able to fulfil the majority of functions, and those which did prove impossible were ably catered for by my vice chairman and neighbour Edna (Stevens), to whom I am much indebted."

"I hope through my experience to encourage others to take-up these life-saving tests."

He added: "If you're given the opportunity to find out early, why wouldn't you? It's so important that people complete the test and return. It's not a nice process but it could save your life."

In brief

Police honour volunteer

HARLOW: A Harlow man was among those honoured at an awards ceremony held by Hertfordshire Police to recognise the contribution of its volunteers.

Bob Cox, who was named Volunteer Advisor of the Year, assists the Safer Neighbourhood Team in East Herts as well as the East Herts Special Constabulary and the Crime Prevention Panel. He also volunteered his own time to set up a new cadet group in Broxbourne.

The ceremony was held at police headquarters in Welwyn Garden City earlier this month.

Community cinema plan

EPPING: Film fans could have a new venue on their doorstep after the town council agreed to host a trial screening at Epping Hall with a view to it being used as a community cinema.

The suggestion came from local resident Susie Evans, who works as curator at the Barbican cinema and said the hall in St John's Road was the perfect place for film screenings.

The council has agreed in principle to waive the hall hire charge for a day early next year for a test screening.

Auction for F1 race suit

ESSEX: A racing suit worn by Formula One world champion Lewis Hamilton is being auctioned to raise funds for the Essex & Herts Air Ambulance Trust.

The charity is inviting people to submit bids for the suit by Thursday, June 30. The top three bidders will then be invited to take part in a live telephone auction during a charity fundraising dinner ball on July 9.

To make a bid, contact Cristina Barone on 0345 504 0055 or email cristina.barone@ehaat.uk.com.

Towpath taskforce get stuck in

A GROUP of volunteers has been helping to spruce up the River Stort in Harlow.

They joined staff from the Canal & River Trust – the charity which is responsible for the care and maintenance of more than 2,000 miles of waterways in England and Wales – to carry out a number of tasks on the towpath near Harlow Mill railway station.

They helped clear vegetation, paint handrails and clear a side stream to help with water control.

The group regularly volunteer as part of the trust's Towpath Taskforce team, an initiative encourages people out onto the waterways to improve them.

BRUSH UP: Tony O'Dell and Reg Lever give a handrail a fresh coat of paint

Jack Newman, volunteer team leader for the Canal & River Trust, said: "We're really grateful to the volunteers for their hard work; they have improved this stretch no end."

"There was very little litter which was great. It allowed us to get stuck in to some more heavy duty work."

He added: "It just shows how much we can improve the river with a bit of extra help and it's always amazing to see people giving up their time to support us."

"We're always on the lookout for more people to help so do get in touch if you are interested."

Immigration scam guard loses prison term appeal

Judges rule 'stern' jail sentence would serve as a deterrent to others

Court Reporter

star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A SECURITY guard jailed for aiding a woman's bid to slip through overseas border controls deserved his "stern" sentence, top judges have ruled.

Dele Uyi Akonedo, 47, of Lower Meadow, Harlow, was jailed for 30 months at Chelmsford Crown Court in June last year after he was convicted of assisting unlawful immigration to an EU state.

The Appeal Court in London was told he was a man of exemplary character before he got sucked into the scam.

He and accomplices plotted to put a Nigerian woman on a plane from Stansted Airport to the Slovakia Republic using false documents.

Akonedo booked an air ticket for the woman and also drove her to the airport but she never managed to get through immigration once she arrived in Bratislava, Mr Justice Jay told the court.

Akonedo was described in court as a hard-working family man and the father of four children.

His case was heard in the Court of Appeal after he challenged his sentence, which his lawyers argued was far too harsh.

Mr Justice Jay, sitting with Lord Justice Davis and Judge Neil Ford, said

Akonedo posed a difficult sentencing exercise.

The immigration scam was not sophisticated but despite Akonedo's compelling personal history the judges refused to reduce his punishment.

"This sentence was certainly stern and at the top of the range but this was a planned offence," the judge said "Others were involved and deterrent sentences continue to be called for in these cases."

Flying the flag for our Armed Forces

A FLAG-raising ceremony was held in Harlow on Monday ahead of Armed Forces Day this weekend.

Councillors, senior council officials and representatives from the Armed Forces and veterans' associations attended the service which took place outside the Civic Centre.

Harlow Council chairman Edna Stevens welcomed those present and said the ceremony was one of recognition rather than remembrance, held to honour "the many men and women there are serving our country all the time".

She added: "They are not just British people but come from many countries of the Commonwealth. They are also stationed at many places around the globe."

"When the East Anglian Regiment exercised their right to march through Harlow in October I asked where their posting was. I was surprised to learn half were going to the Falklands and half to Bosnia."

"So let us remember all those in the Armed Services – the Army, the Navy and Air Force – whose lives are in danger every day."

Rev Martin Harris, team rector and area dean for Harlow, gave a short speech which was followed by a short period of reflection.

The National Anthem was then played and the flag, which has been flying all week ahead of Armed Forces Day on Saturday, was raised.

A similar service was held at County Hall in Chelmsford.

County council chairman John Aldridge said: "Essex has a long and proud military history and it is fitting we continue to celebrate and remember all of those who defend our country."

Residents invited to town centre service marking centenary of Battle of Somme

A SERVICE of commemoration to mark the 100th anniversary of the Battle of the Somme will take place in Harlow town centre next week.

The First World War campaign lasted for 141 days and by the time it ended more than one million soldiers had been killed or wounded. During the battle 13 men from Harlow lost their lives, with two of them killed on the first day of fighting.

Next Friday's service will start at 7am and last for an hour. A two-minute silence will take place at 7.30am, the exact time on July 1, 1916 when British soldiers left the trenches and went over the top to commence the battle.

The service will be held in Market Square. Bus passes will be accepted before 9am by Arriva and Trustybus while free parking will be available in the Post Office Road car park from 6.30am to 8.30am.

Project

It is being organised by the Harlow WW1 Project Team which includes the Royal British Legion, Heart 4 Harlow, Harlow Civic Society, The Western Front Association, Harlow Council and individuals.

The group was set up two years ago to commemorate the centenary of the start of the First World War and organised the 2014 commemoration event at the Potter Street war memorial.

As part of commemorations of the Battle of the Somme there will be a touring exhibition remembering the 13 Harlow soldiers who lost their lives in battle.

The exhibition will visit various locations during a 141-day tour of the town, starting at the Royal British Legion on Monday.

The first day of The Battle of the Somme was the bloodiest day in British military history with the heaviest loss of life – 19,240 soldiers – in a single day's fighting.

JUMP TO IT: Members of St Clare's fundraising team are ready to light up the night

star@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

WITH just nine days to go, organisers of St Clare Hospice's Midnight Walk are beginning the final preparations to the charity's biggest fundraising event of the year.

Hundreds of people have already signed up to take part but there is still time to join in. Online registration closes at 5pm on Monday so this is the last weekend to book a place in advance.

However, new registrations will still be taken on the night of the walk, which starts from The Water Gardens in Harlow town centre at 11pm next Saturday (July 2).

Event organiser Jade Clarke said: "Everyone here is so excited that our biggest event is back with a bang for 2016. We can hardly contain our excitement as the seven-day countdown begins this Saturday.

"The hospice office is currently stuffed full of neon tutus, flashing head-wear and glow sticks and we just can't wait to get out on to the streets of Harlow with all our wonderful Midnight Walkers."

Before the start of the walk, which is being sponsored by law firm Barnes and Partners and supported the Star, staff from PureGym and Clubbercise Harlow will lead a warm-up routine with Heart 101.7 providing the music.

Rosy outlook for open gardens weekend

KEEN horticulturists will be showing off the results of all their hard work when they open their gardens to the public this weekend to raise money for St Clare Hospice.

The two-day event is an opportunity to explore 27 gardens in and around Harlow and Hastingwood.

One of the those taking part for the first time is the Deputy Lieutenant of Essex and former hospice chairman Michael Chapman. He is opening his gardens in the grounds of the Grade II listed 17th century Goosebury Hall at Epping Long Green in memory of his wife Janet, who died at St Clare in January.

"We moved to Goosebury Hall over 30 years ago and when we first arrived the garden was non-existent," he said. "It was just a muddy paddock but over the years Jan and I worked together to create the garden."

Entry to all the participating gardens is by brochure which cost £5 and contain all the details and locations of the gardens taking part. They are available to purchase from all eight of the hospice's charity shops.

Refreshments, including homemade cakes and ploughman lunches, will be available at the majority of venues.

St Clare will also be hosting a family fun day at The Link in Parsloe Road, Harlow, from 1-5pm on Saturday.

There will be attractions for all ages including live music and dancing, a classic car display, face painting, refreshments and a tombola.

Entry costs £1 per person.

There are two distances – 5km or 10km – to suit all abilities and both will start at 11pm.

"We will be opening registrations at 9pm on the night and we will be selling a whole range of glow sticks, tutus and neon-wear with all the proceeds going to St Clare so don't worry if you haven't found an outfit yet," said Jade. "Just bring yourself and your friends and we can help with the rest."

It is hoped the event will raise more than £60,000 – enough to fund the inpatient unit for two weeks – towards the annual £3.7m running costs of the hospice at Hastingwood which provides its services free of charge.

Registration costs £20 for adults (16 years and above) and £10 for children (11-15 years). Sign up at www.stclarehospice.org.uk/event/midnight-walk-2016 or go to the dedicated registration desk at The Water Gardens on the night.

RANGERS CLUB

Chicken and ships

A MAN who has spent the past two years sailing around the world on a 39ft-long boat has a rather unusual companion to keep him company – a chicken called Monique.

French sailor Guirec Soudee wanted to take a pet with him and chose the hen, which was only four months old when he started his trip from the Canary Islands.

Since then he has been posting pictures of their adventures on his Facebook page and photosharing site Instagram.

"She doesn't need that much looking after and I'm able to get eggs at sea," he said.

"People told me it wouldn't work, that the hen would be too stressed and wouldn't lay eggs, but there was no problem. She laid eggs straight away. "She adapted to it perfectly, she was very comfortable very quickly."

In some of the photographs

Monique is seen walking around the deck of the boat but when the weather gets bad she is kept safely in her hutch.

"She follows me everywhere and doesn't create any problems," said Guirec. "All I need to do is shout 'Monique' and she will come to me, sit on me, give me company. She is amazing."

After starting the trip in the Canaries, Guirec and Monique sailed to the Caribbean before moving on to the Arctic. He is currently moored in Greenland as he prepares for the next leg of his journey down towards Alaska.

Nik's a chip off the old block

CHAS but not Dave will perform at The Square to mark the venue's eighth birthday of independent management on July 2.

Nik Hodges, Chas' son and the duo's drummer, will play alongside his father, while Darren Juniper will fill the shoes of Dave.

"It is fantastic to be back at The Square," said Nick, who is a prolific producer and musician in his own right.

"Both Chas and Dave are big fans of the venue. It is very important to all the family, we have always loved it since we were in our late teens.

"It's nice to be back. I think it is unique in that it is one of those rare places where everyone is welcoming.

"Every age and every persuasion in music taste is made to feel welcome. It is how venues used to be. There is also a great bunch of people running it."

Despite Dave's absence, the show will feature all the hits and there will be support from Murray Torkildsen.

"Dave has got some business to deal with," explained 42-year-old Nik. "It is something we are quite used to."

"It is just a solo gig from Chas.

They are constantly touring. Darren is coming in to sing as well and it is going to be a great night.

"There is never a plan - that is the beauty of it."

"I have been doing it for about seven years," added Nik, who lives in Ware.

"It was really a stop-gap when the original drummer (Mick Burt) retired and sadly passed away last year. It was a short-term thing that has kept going."

"In December (when Chas and Dave last played at The Square), I thought it was going to be the last time that I would ever play at the venue.

"I was very happy it was back. It was very much a big surprise because we all knew that the plans had been put in place to build on the site had been rejected but we did not know how quickly it could be reopened in that time.

"But it has not just been reopened it is completely revamped. I did not think they could make it any better, but they have."

■ Chas Hodges will play at The Square, in Fourth Avenue, Harlow on Saturday, July 2. Tickets cost £8 in advance and can be bought from www.thesquareharlow.com.

ART EXHIBITIONS

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Gibberd Gallery, Civic Centre, The Water Gardens, Harlow
until September 1 (Monday-Friday 9am-4.45pm)

A celebration of the work of Essex-born artist Peter Randall Page. This extravagant and vibrant exhibition of carvings, bronzes, works on paper and maquettes comes to the East of England for the very first time as the gallery is transformed into a journey through Page's artistic transitions. A stone carving entitled Warp and Woof, (pictured left) has been placed in The Water Gardens to create a marker and starting point for visitors to the exhibition.

MAKING MARKS

The Gallery, Parndon Mill, Harlow
until June 26 (Tuesday-Friday 10am-5pm & Sunday 2-4pm)

An exhibition of large scale monochrome drawings and other works on paper by Hilary Owers, a working artist who lives in rural Suffolk and who has had a studio at Cuckoo Farm Studios in Colchester for the past 17 years.

LIMINALITY

Gatehouse Arts, East Gate Harlow
until June 24 (10.30am-3pm)

A showcase of work by a group of students from The Memorial University of Newfoundland campus in Old Harlow.

The name's Kane . . . Russell Kane

ALTERNATIVE theatre, big name comedians, mainstream plays and tribute bands are all on this season's programme at Harlow Playhouse.

Top comic Russell Kane and Corrie star Steven Arnold are two of the big names on the line-up while family favourite Tom Swift will appear in a one-man show and festive pantomime.

Look out too for the quirky array of plays performed as part of Pay What You Can season.

Autumn/Winter 2016 actually begins next month with In Good Hands, an indie drama set in a real life hair salon in Bishop's Stortford (July 3) and Epping (July 4).

As part of Pay What You Can audience members are given the opportunity to leave a donation at the end of the play. Since launching last year the scheme has proved a hit with more shows added to this season's line-up.

These include The Lounge (July 21 and 22), Daughters of Fortune: Mia (October 1), Jess and Joe Forever (October 21) Harrogate (November 3) HIP (November 10) and Ballet Black (November 16).

A highlight of Pay What You Can events could be BBC Music Introducing Essex (September 13, October 11, November 8, December 6, January 3, and February 28).

These are a series of live gigs with bands handpicked to nurture and give exposure to some of the most exciting upcoming artists.

The line-up will be revealed nearer the time. Held in conjunction with BBC Introducing, the event series has helped launch careers of acts such as Florence and the Machine, Bombay Bicycle Club and Django Django.

Scott Ramsey, director of Harlow Playhouse, said: "Pay What You Can has revolutionised how audiences interact with us, we are able to open the doors to as many people as possible by eliminating upfront costs.

"People are taking more risks on what they see and they are coming back more often which is so lovely to see."

Established stars and bigger budget performances set the tone of the bill for much of the line-up this summer.

Rachel Wood, of Emmerdale fame, will appear alongside fellow soap star Steven Arnold in Chaplin: The Charlie Chaplin Story (July 23) which follows the protagonist on his untold journey from London to Hollywood.

Buddy - The Buddy Holly Story (August 31 - September 3) follows, which tells the story of the 1950s icon through a two-hour spectacle of his hits.

If you enjoy a sing-a-long look no further as Harlow Playhouse has two special screenings lined up for film fans to enjoy. Summer Nights can be enjoyed in song through Grease (July 24) while fans are refusing to let go of the juggernaut that is Frozen, which will also be shown on July 24.

For both films lyrics will be on screen and a live host will guide audiences through an interactive screening. Fancy dress is encouraged.

More music follows on into the autumn through a stellar line-up of tribute acts. These include Kast Off Kinks (September 10), Are you experienced? The Jimi Hendrix Tribute (October 12), The Big Band (October 13) and The Simon and Garfunkel Story (October 19).

Kate Markham, who has featured on Graham Norton, will celebrate one of this generation's finest singers in Someone Like You - The Adele Songbook (September 15).

With Adele touring so rarely this presents an opportunity to hear the songs from her albums 19, 21 and 25 come to life.

Pantomime regular Tom Swift appears twice in the programme. His debut one man show Tomfoolery shows off his magic skills and self-deprecating wit. Programme notes state: "Book tickets not to avoid disappointment (Tom's disappointment). All proceeds go to the Tom Swift Foundation, a new charity dedicated to furnishing Tom's home."

The 31-year-old will be back on more familiar territory when he is set to return at Christmas time for Beauty and the Beast (December 3 - January 4). Younger audiences should also be sure to catch Santa's Rusty Robot (December 16 - 24).

At the other end of the culture scale, Russian State Ballet and Opera House are back with Carmen (September 9) and Swan Lake (October 20) - backed by a 30-piece live orchestra.

After a sneak-peak show earlier this year, Russell Kane returns to Harlow Playhouse (November 8) with his show Right Man, Wrong Age. Omid Djalili (October 21) has been journeying all-round the UK this year and does not miss Harlow off his Shmuck for a Night tour.

Hal Cruttenden (November 19) returns for his rescheduled show. On February 10 BBC star Stephen K Amos will be the evening's entertainment.

For bookings and more information call Harlow Playhouse on (01279) 431945 or visit www.playhouseharlow.com.

The Secret Life of Pets

COMEDY DRAMA: (U) 91 minutes
Directors: Chris Renaud, Yarrow Cheney
Voices: Louis CK, Eric Stonestreet, Kevin Hart, Jenny Slate, Ellie Kemper, Lake Bell, Albert Brooks, Steve Coogan

Creates great and small wreak havoc on the streets of New York City in Chris Renaud and Yarrow Cheney's colourful computer-animated romp.

Employing a similar framework to Toy Story, The Secret Life Of Pets imagines what our four-legged, feathered and finned friends get up to when our backs are turned, suggesting that the fun begins when we go to work or school.

A Jack Russell terrier and an affection-starved mongrel replace Woody and Buzz Lightyear as the feuding central characters, whose rivalry mellows into mutual affection when they are separated from their owner.

Screenwriters Ken Daurio, Brian Lynch and Cinco Paul have great fun in early scenes, revealing how a dachshund uses his owner's food mixer as a back massager or one tiny dog performs acrobatic leaps to water a hanging basket with a cock of its leg.

The central concept isn't original, but there's an infectious charm to every shiny frame of Renaud and Cheney's well-groomed picture, which mercilessly exploits our affection for the critters that share our homes.

Katie (voiced by Ellie Kemper) lives in her Manhattan apartment with a mischievous terrier named Max (Louis CK).

"Our love is stronger than words or shoes," explains Max, referring to his penchant for chewing his owner's footwear when he was a puppy in training.

He is good friends with other domesticated animals and birds including a pampered Eskimo dog named Gidget (Jenny Slate), who is head over fluffy tail in love with Max, and a sardonic house cat named Chloe (Lake Bell), who nurtures a healthy disdain for anything that doesn't enrich her selfish existence.

"Dog people do weird, inexplicable things," she purrs, "like they get dogs instead of cats."

Max's bond with Katie is threatened when his owner brings home a lolling mongrel named Duke (Eric Stonestreet), who she has saved from the pound.

Intense rivalry spills out onto the city streets where Max and Duke fall foul of a sphynx cat called Ozone (Steve Coogan) and are mistaken for strays by animal control officers.

The snarling enemies are rescued by a maniacal white rabbit named Snowball (Kevin Hart), who pressgangs them into service in his army of unwanted animals, who live in the sewers.

The Secret Life Of Pets is the brainchild of the makers of Despicable Me and Minions, and retains a similar visual style and family-friendly sense of humour.

Behavioural tics of each breed are mercilessly exploited for slapstick laughs and co-directors Renaud and Cheney maintain a brisk trot to ensure young audiences don't go for walkies in the middle of the film.

The main feature is accompanied by a cute animated short entitled Mower Minions in which the gibberish-spouting sidekicks tend the lawn of elderly neighbours.

Alas, the diminutive do-gooders are yellow fingers and thumbs, propagating plentiful guffaws and giggles.

FOCUS ON

Name: Jon Taylor
Age: 49
Location: North Weald
What camera do you use?
Canon Rebel T3i
What was your first camera?
Canon 350D

Why do you take photos?
I take photos as there are so many things in everyday day life you take for granted and you never know if they are going to be around for long or drastically change. Plus suppose the older you get you don't remember as much. At least you have pictures so you can remember the little things. Taking pictures of my children growing up and see them get married, then seeing my grandchildren grow and keeping the memories safe.

How long have you been interested in photography:
Since I was in my 20s but back then it was a roll of 36 film. You sent it off and hope you get more than five good pictures back.

What type of photography are you interested in?
I take all types of pictures. My camera is always with me when I'm out and about, but camera phones are good to catch that quick picture if your not quite ready for it. I love wildlife photography, capturing the daily life of animals. If I like the scene or subject then I will capture it and look at it at home and see what was good or bad about it, then try next time to change what I did wrong. That's the good thing about the digital age.

Perfect property for investors

GUARDIAN is delighted to offer this one-bedroom terraced house in Coalport Close. This property is an ideal investment property and can be sold with tenants in place.

This property is located in a cul-de-sac position and benefits from a large double bedroom, open plan fitted kitchen, modern bathroom and two allocated parking spaces.

The kitchen area consists of range of wall and base units, integrated cooker, extractor hood, sink and drainer unit, space for fridge/freezer, plumbing for washing machine, and power points.

Furthermore, this property is situated in a location for it to be catchment for two of Harlow's best primary schools - Henry Moore Primary School and Church Langley Primary School.

This particular property in Coalport Close has gas central heating throughout and has double glazed windows.

Also, the property is chain free and can be sold with good long-term tenants in place if required.

More importantly, this property is in a private area in good decorative order throughout.

The property is being marketed by Guardian for offers over £210,000.

Our business is your future

Herts & Essex Media Group, part of Trinity Mirror, is the changing face of regional media. Through our trusted brands such as the Hertfordshire Mercury, Herts & Essex Observer and Harlow Star, online, in print, and on tablet and mobile, we are transforming our relationship with you.

We are transforming it to one marked by dynamism and immediacy, where anything and everything that is happening in your world is brought to you at the speed it happens. Your one stop destination. This makes our brand the go-to place for all things local... making local matter more.

We have some hugely exciting plans ahead this year, some of which will change the shape of our brands for ever, and we'd like you to join our growing family and be a part of this.

Media Sales Consultant (Telephone Sales)

Starting salary dependent on experience + uncapped Bonus

Could you help grow advertising for three of the UK's best read local weekly newspapers and websites? We are looking for people with experience in a sales role who are confident, self-motivated and organised. Ideally you will come from a sales background with sound knowledge of the digital market as well as an understanding of media and newspaper industries. The ideal candidate will be ready to hit the ground running with sales presentations and pitches and will be eager to hit targets, working towards incentives in-house. You will be equally comfortable working on your own and as part of a team.

As a Media Sales Consultant, you will be required to build relationships with existing advertisers and secure new business while striving to meet and exceed targets. You will have an agreed customer base and territory which you will be required to grow and develop.

We offer ongoing training and support in addition to sales incentives. Candidates will need to demonstrate relevant sales experience and have knowledge of using Microsoft Office programmes (Windows, Excel, Outlook)

The Package

- 5 Weeks Holiday
- Company Pension scheme available*
- Healthcare Insurance*

*after qualifying period

PUBLIC NOTICE OF AN APPLICATION TO VARY A PREMISES LICENCE UNDER SECTION 34 OF THE LICENSING ACT 2003

Notice is hereby given that an application was made to the Harlow Council to vary a premises licence under the above Act on 21st June 2016. Applicant: Martin McColl Limited. Address of premises: McColl, 113 Fishers Hatch, Harlow, Essex, CM20 3PB. Proposed variation to the licensable activities: To remove the seasonal restrictions on the Sale Of Alcohol hours and extend the Sale of Alcohol hours to 06:00 hours to 23:00 hours Monday to Sunday for consumption off the premises and remove all conditions under annex 2 and replace with up to date conditions. The postal address of the Licensing Authority where the register is kept and the application may be inspected is: "Licensing Team, Harlow Council, Civic Centre, The Water Gardens, Harlow, Essex, CM20 1WG. Any person wishing to make representations on this matter shall give notice, in writing, stating the nature and grounds for making such representations to the Licensing Officer at the above address" within 28 days of the date of this notice - by the 19th July 2016. Further information is available on the web site www.harlow.gov.uk following the links.
It is an offence, under section 158 of the Licensing Act 2003, to knowingly or recklessly make a false statement in or in connection with an application and the maximum fine on summary conviction of such an offence is £500.

Essex County Council

(High Street, Roydon) (Temporary Prohibition of Traffic) Order 2016

Notice is hereby given that the Essex County Council has made the above Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Effect of the order: To temporarily close that length of High Street in the Parish of Roydon in the District of Epping Forest from point 10 metres either side of level crossing.

The closure is scheduled to commence on 28th June 2016 for two nights 00:30 to 05:30 days or where appropriate signs are showing and weather permitting.

The closure is required for the safety of the public and workforce while track maintenance works are undertaken.

The alternative route will be via High Street B181, Harlow Road, Roydon Road, Elizabeth Way A1169, A414, High Street B181 and vice versa.

Access for emergency service vehicles and pedestrians will be maintained at all times during the closure.

The Order will come into effect on 28th June 2016 and may continue in force for 18 months or until the works have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Liz Burr, Head of Network Management, County Hall, Chelmsford

Essex County Council and Southend-on-Sea Borough Council Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 (as amended) Regulation 22 of the Town and Country Planning (Local Development) (England) Regulations 2012 Notice of Submission of the Essex and Southend-on-Sea Replacement Waste Local Plan to the Secretary of State (Regulation 22)

Essex County Council and Southend-on-Sea Borough Council have submitted the Replacement Waste Local Plan and supporting documents to the Secretary of State for independent examination under Section 22 of the Town and Country Planning (Local Development) (England) Regulations 2012.

The Replacement Waste Local Plan, once adopted, will form part of the Essex County Council Minerals and Waste Development Framework and will replace the Essex Waste Local Plan, which was adopted in 2001. Once adopted, the Plan will set out the vision and policy governing waste development in Essex until 2032. The Plan outlines the vision, objectives and spatial strategy to enable the delivery of sustainable waste development and sets out policies to manage waste. The Plan includes 18 site allocations for future management facilities and designates 32 Areas of Search.

The documents submitted and the entire examination library is available to view at the following locations:

- Online at www.essex.gov.uk/WLP and www.southend.gov.uk/wastelocalplan
- At County Hall, Chelmsford from Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm by appointment via mineralsandwastepolicy@essex.gov.uk or 03330 139 808.
- At the Civic Centre, Southend from Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm by appointment via debeskinner@southend.gov.uk or 01702 215408.

Paper copies of the submitted Plan and the Policies Map are also available to view at:

- Essex district, borough and city council offices – please contact direct for opening hours
- Essex and Southend-on-Sea libraries – please contact direct for opening hours

(Please note that free internet access to the full suite of submission and evidence documents is available at these libraries).

In accordance with section 20 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 (as amended) Inspector Kath Ellison BA MPHIL MRTPI has been appointed to conduct the examination to determine whether the Replacement Waste Local Plan is sound. The date for the opening of any formal hearing part of the examination into the Local Plan will be decided by the Inspector.

The examination process is administered by the Programme Officer, Claire Jones-Hughes. Mrs Jones-Hughes is independent from the Councils, and reports directly to the Inspector. Any correspondence or queries relating to the Examination should be directed towards the Programme Officer:

YOUR STARS WITH

ARIES MARCH 21 – APRIL 20

Don't be put off your dreams by what others say. Follow your own feet and trust that you are moving in the right direction. A new area of your work opens up which makes your professional world a more flexible place to be. First dates and new introductions spark the beginning of something really special. Ring now so we can talk about your recent mixed emotions.

TAURUS APRIL 21 – MAY 21

I know you are not happy with the way that a close one has been leading such an independent life, but you are the one who gave the signal that this was not a problem. Talking to them on Tuesday or Thursday helps you find some common ground to build on. Talk is cheap on Friday though. Show your intentions by acting. Ring now to hear why you're feeling so nostalgic at the moment.

FOR WEEKLY AND MONTHLY READINGS CALL 0911 8532 349 65p per minute

GEMINI MAY 22 – JUNE 21

Your confidence is growing by the day, which is going to be great for your social life. Just make sure that you do not allow confidence to turn into arrogance or you will frighten away the very faces you are trying to impress. A new face in your career is not a threat, but holds the key to the career you long for. Ring now to hear why it's worth asking questions about current work changes.

FOR WEEKLY AND MONTHLY READINGS CALL 0911 8532 350 65p per minute

CANCER JUNE 22 – JULY 22

Try not to act on rumours you hear this week, but allow the dramatic nature of those involved to settle first. There is a need for you to look after someone who is not feeling as strong as they should emotionally or physically. This helps you to get your own life into perspective. An obstacle you encountered financially is given a boost from news you hear midweek. Ring now for more predictions.

LEO JULY 23 – AUGUST 23

Try not to leave things half done to go on to the next project or you are going to cast yourself as unprofessional. You know that pride is important to a sign such as you, so finish what you start. A tired mood this week could see you cancelling the very plans you should be throwing yourself into. Ring now to hear why love and romance have a cloak and dagger feel as you enter July.

VIRGO AUGUST 24 – SEPTEMBER 22

Bravery is daring to try where others would not. I know you have what it takes to turn your wildest dreams into a reality, but first you have to convince yourself. Come on Virgo, take the first step and the next will come naturally. Take a moment to call up the person you've been neglecting. They have news which will prove they're stronger now. Ring now to hear about your incredible 2016.

LIBRA SEPTEMBER 23 – OCTOBER 23

A problem in the workplace makes it difficult for you to feel professional, but this is in fact your chance to shine Libra. Take the initiative and show you have what it takes to control what others can't. This is where last year's dramas pay off, as now they taught you some really valuable lessons. Jealousy in love is your enemy. Ring now so I can help you gain perspective.

SAGITTARIUS NOVEMBER 22 – DECEMBER 20

There are several work avenues which need your time and attention, but you seem to be more intent on starting fresh than you do on tying up loose ends. Enjoy showing how good you are at finishing as well as starting things Sagittarius. Luck is on your side in love. You can afford to take chances and to say how you feel with confidence. Ring now and I'll tell you a secret.

CAPRICORN DECEMBER 21 – JANUARY 20

There is a far more settled feel to your chart than we have seen in weeks and this has much to do with your state of mind as it does what others have said or done to you. Truth be told, you still need to raise those standards Capricorn, as many of you have been aiming too low in the last year. Know you are worth supporting and loving and others will too. Ring now to talk life through with me.

Swimming

Churchgate are national champs

CHURCHGATE Primary School are national swimming champions after competing at Sheffield's Pond Forge pool.

The squad of Tyler Jackson, Ethan Ryan, Alex Knight and Ben Stringer produced an amazing performance to win the Small Schools category medley relay at the English Schools Swimming Association (ESSA) 22nd Annual Team Championships for Primary Schools.

In the heats the boys produced an outstanding swim, Tyler Jackson stormed the backstroke leg in a time of 16.38secs placing the team first on the opening leg, and this was followed by Ethan Ryan on the breaststroke leg whose time of 20.66 maintained the boys lead.

Alex Knight on the third freestyle leg (15.08) was followed by Ben Stringer on the anchor freestyle leg, whose time of 14.73 brought the team home well clear of the opposition.

In the final the boys were aware of the threat from the other schools competing, not least St Felix who were the 2015 champions, and whose school provide swimming scholarships.

Undeterred they produced another outstanding swim as shown in the heat.

They dominated from the start and their time of 1:07.02 was good enough to claim the National Championship.

Not satisfied with one championship, Churchgate also qualified for the A Final of the 4x25m Freestyle Championship.

Their storming finish to record a time of 1:01.98 was not quite enough in a tight finish where less than a second covered second to fifth places.

Martial arts

Little club sure has big heart

A SMALL group of jiu jitsu fighters showed big heart as they returned from national championships with a clutch of gold medals.

Four members of Harlow Jiu Jitsu Club travelled to Walsall in the Midlands to take part in the British Jiu Jitsu Association GB (BJJAGB) National Championships.

Ella Ballard-Adams, 12, and Layla Stevens, 11, were taking part in their first national championships.

It was also the first nationals for Sensei Guy Middleton (3rd Dan).

He won gold in the senior weapons kata.

Sensei Luke Shipwright went home with gold in continuous fighting.

Ella also bagged the gold in continuous fighting and random attacks.

Layla won bronze in the continuous fighting, in the same group as Ella.

Senior Sensei Dave Rintoul (6th Dan) said: "They all showed determination and courage and were a credit to the club."

Running

Louise sprints home second

HARLOW Running Club hosted the third round of the Herts/Essex Midweek Road Race League Division Two over an undulating and wet 10K course.

The ladies outshone the men by comfortably winning their race, with the men third out of 11 teams.

First lady was Louise Brass in second place out of 100 finishers in a superb 42min 18sec. Not far behind was Louise Tankard in third in 42.24, Sharon Wright ninth in 44.26 and Julia Gardiner 16th in 45.49.

There was also a personal best (PB) for the distance for Holly Nairn 46th in 52.20.

In the men's race 17-year-old Afewerik Rossom, in his debut at the distance, finished second out of 170 finishers in a fantastic 35.38 for a new HRC U20 record, the last set ten years ago.

He was followed home by Richard Hynes in 17th (38.22), Amaniel Tesfay (18th 38.32) and Dan Chapman (25th 39.04).

There were also PBs for Jason Donovan (40th 40.22), Andy Smith (140th 51.45) and Andrew Smith (163rd 58.09).

Other Harlow runners: Ladies: 21st Caroline Jay 47.17; 23rd Vicky Steadman 47.21; 24th Catherine Ridge 47.52; 27th Anna Robey 48.52 debut; 41st Michelle Hyde 51.05; 46th Holly Nairn 52.20 PB; 59th Louise Cootes 53.39; 67th Nicola Smith 55.10; 73rd Karen Moor 56.04; 75th Jane Evans 56.11; 84th Carmen Byfield 58.09 debut; 89th Kerry Mavris 59.53.

Men: 37th Alex Smith 40.11; 41st Andy Terrell 40.24; 49th Jamie Jephcott 41.40; 52nd Owen Haigh 41.56; 66th Len Saterlay 43.15; 71st Jon Steadman 44.17; 73rd John Bull 44.23; 79th Graham Saville 45.13; 101st Mark Hayward 47.01; 102nd John Tennant 47.05; 104th Paul Dixon 47.13; 106th Sean Flynn 47.27; 108th Spencer Brooks 47.38; 164th Peter Mills 58.29.

Athletes still triumph without absent stars

Southern League success across the board for club

THERE was plenty of talent on show as Harlow Athletic Club members enjoyed another excellent weekend at national, regional and local levels.

Three athletes went to take part at the U20 and U23 championships at Bedford.

Shemar Boldiszar was forced to withdraw through injury but Mohamed Tamedou and Charles Tankeh performed well in their respective 100m events.

Tamedou was fourth in a time of 11.09sec and Tankeh sixth in a time of 11.49. This was a new PB for Tamedou.

Coach Vincent Lawrence said: "It was a great day for our boys competing against elite athletes. I'm very proud of them."

With the event clashing with the third round of Southern Athletics League Division Three North fixtures, and Polly Woods and Dawn Jones unavailable for the women, Harlow could have struggled.

Instead, they pulled off a remarkable win and the team remains unbeaten with two fixtures remaining.

It began with the hammer, pole vault and long jumps. Dave Bauer picked up first place in the men's A event and Glen Paxman, Stephanie Fuller and Bridget Owen took second places in all of the other events.

In the pit Bethany Harryman celebrated her selection for the English Catholic Schools' team, heading out to their world championships in France next month, by winning the women's event.

Athletics

Carl Paxman was second for the men and in the B events Glen Paxman was fourth with Ruvimbo Mukachana third for the women.

Paxman managed to juggle three events as the pole vault began late and won the A event. Craig Snook won the B event.

In the 100m Harry Woodall was third in the A event and Paxman third in the B, Hannah and Annabel Owen were third and second in the two women's events.

Strong

In the 800m, Owen Harknett was the pick of the performers with a strong second place in 2.11.1. Katie Champion also took second for the women. Both were supported in the B events by Donald Campbell and Valerie Harknett as they secured points.

The high jump proved fruitful as Paxman and Harryman won the men's and women's A events and Leo Chaschin jumped a new PB to win the B event. Hannah Owen was second for the women.

Javelin was equally successful with Ruvimbo Mukachana winning the women's A event, Hannah Owen the B and Craig Snook and Paxman repeated the feat for the men. In the shot put, Dave Bauer threw 10.88m for third.

Harlow scored more good points in the 200m and 1500m, Bethany Harryman and Eilidh Malcolm taking both second places in the women's events.

Glen Paxman was also second with Harry Woodall fourth in a strong men's A race. Lewis Harknett secured a win in the 1500m with Jared Bethell third in the B event.

In the discus, Dave Bauer threw the furthest with 36.43m and in the triple jump Jordan jumped a very decent 11.75m in his first senior outing of the season for fourth in the men's A event.

Leo Chaschin was second in the B section, Hannah Owen and Steph Fuller were both third in the two women's events.

As was the case at the last match, a good showing in the final endurance events would seal the victory ahead of the relays.

Jared Bethell and Donald Campbell delivered a second and third place finish respectively.

Katie Champion and Eilidh Malcolm did the same in the women's 2000m steeplechase.

Serpentine clawed back some ground in the relays but not enough to overturn the lead.

Afterwards club chairman Steve Lott said: "With so much else going on this weekend we could have struggled."

"However, there is grit in this group and every single member of the team has competed in as many events as possible to pick up points for the team. I'm so proud of them all."

PERSONAL BEST: Mohamed Tamedou was in fine form

Dramatic final-ball defeat for unlucky Harlow Town

Cricket

HARLOW Town came up just short against Hutton at Ash Tree Field on Saturday.

Neil Gladwin inserted the visitors on a wicket that was damp due to the wet conditions.

Dan Baldwin saw off Daniel Hagger with the score on 53. Another 22 runs were added before Shaun Alderson clean bowled James Mowll for 12.

Another partnership of 80 proceeded Alderson taking the third wicket as Mitchell Fenn was caught by Gladwin for 67.

Three runs later, Gladwin's slide and throw found captain Stuart Feeley short of his ground.

A stand of 48 took Hutton past 200 before a flurry of wickets saw Alderson claim an LBW, Farmer clean bowl fellow Zimbabwean Mumba for 29 and Spires for 0, ending with Eversden claiming two deserved wickets as Hutton set Harlow Town a very gettable 230 off 50 overs.

Opening the batting, Baldwin hit a ferocious hook shot for four, but in the next over he skied a delivery with the score on 11.

Ashley Alderson and Holland batted well together. After a stand of 95, Alderson was dismissed for 53.

Holland then cut a delivery to the keeper for 37 as Harlow lost two wickets on the same score.

This brought Matt Hurley to the crease to join Patrick Yates. A mix-up saw Hurley (2) run out and Eversden came and went for eight and Harlow Town were in trouble at 120-5.

Scott Alderson was next to go, cutting to point for 20. Gladwin tamely chipped back to the bowler for one and then Yates, after scoring a wonderful 70 off 88 balls was given out lbw.

Needing ten off ten balls, Farmer was joined by Shaun Alderson. They took the target down to seven off the last over. Alderson skied the first ball to the keeper, Farmer struck the next ball down the ground for one run.

The next two balls were wide, the next three dot balls as Morrell now needed four from the final ball, but he could only get a single.

'WE CAN DO IT ALL OVER AGAIN'

Eadie aims for play-off push

by Alasdair Gold

sportsdesk@hertsexnews.co.uk

HARLOW Town defender Layne Eadie may just have been named as the best left-back in the Ryman North, but he is already looking for another play-off push next season in the Ryman Premier.

Harlow had a year to remember, earning promotion after a long campaign with a brilliant 3-1 victory against AFC Hornchurch in the play-off final, with Eadie himself setting the seal on the season with a magnificent 30-yard wonder strike.

On Saturday night the defender, who turns 23 next month, got the accolade his super campaign deserved with a place in the Ryman North Team of the Year at the league awards, alongside team-mates Ibrahim Sonko and Junior Dadson.

"It's obviously a massive honour to be named in the team of the year," Eadie told the Star. "It means a great deal. Massive thanks to Danny Chapman and Spencer Knight for all their support."

The defender was quick to pay tribute to the other Hawks duo to have made the team.

"Sonks was outstanding, to have him at the back with us really made our defence," he explained. "I think to a degree that was the difference between the last two seasons in that it was a settled back four this year. And he has a wealth of experience which helped in the big games or when it was a tight game."

"As for Junior, even when he was not playing well he would still drag us back from defeat or a drawing situation with a quick-fire brace or last-minute goal."

Terrifying

"His pace is terrifying, no defender can handle him when he's on song. He's just too quick."

The left-back gave his take on Harlow's campaign, which began slowly before building towards its brilliant finale.

"Last season was obviously a very up and down one with the FA Cup run to the record-breaking 12 wins in a row," he recounted.

"Missing out on the title, although it was in the end something like 10 points the gap, at one stage near the end we definitely had a chance. I think it was the Dereham game that made the wheels come off a little bit and it took a few games to get back to our form again."

"But I wouldn't change the way we went up for anything now we've done it. It was third time lucky for me! And to score how I did in the final was just out of this world."

Next year the Ryman Premier beckons and Eadie does not believe that much needs to be tweaked in the team for it to enjoy another successful year and he is aiming for the play-offs once again.

"I don't think a lot needs to be done in regards of recruitment as I think we had the best squad in the league last year," he said.

"It looks like we've kept the core players so maybe we only need two or three players, but I think we can push for a play-off spot."

"I don't like all this let's just be safe mentality, look where it's got people in the past."

"I want us to go up and keep going up which is why with this group of lads and a couple of new additions I believe we can challenge."

LET'S GO ROUND AGAIN: After last season's promotion success, Harlow Town defender Layne Eadie is looking for a play-off push in the Ryman Premier

Ahmed anger after Harlow's streak ends

HARLOW Cricket Club captain Rehman Ahmed was furious after his team surrendered their unbeaten status and slumped back into a mid-table berth with defeat at Harold Wood.

Harlow never really came to terms with the overcast conditions and a damp pitch which had a bit of variable bounce.

"We ruined our unbeaten run ourselves," said Ahmed.

"Scoring 130 on that wicket and not batting out our overs was criminal."

"Nearly everyone was out to playing a bad shot with the pitch being decent to bat on once you applied yourself."

"Their bowling attack wasn't unplayable, we just handed our wickets to them."

"Their batsmen showed us how to bat on that wicket by simply playing the ball on merit."

"We dust ourselves off and entertain Fives & Heronians at home on Saturday, where we will look to prize our wickets more."

Against Harold Wood, Mohammed Waqas (11) hit a well-timed flick through mid-wicket and an aggressive pull shot before being bowled by Maruf Chowdhury.

Struggled

Alan Jones (14) struggled to find any tempo before being bowled in the 18th over.

Ahmed (37) sought to inject some life into the innings, with consecutive boundaries struck off Mohammed Fahad, but it was to little avail. The only other batsmen making double figures were Jon Perry (18) and Mustanser Meraj (14).

Harlow were dismissed for an unconvincing 130.

Harlow needed an early breakthrough and it arrived in Nicky Baxter's first over when he bowled Burhan Mahmood (1).

Craig Perrin edged a ball from Callum Sykes but it was a difficult chance which Jones could not take.

Soon Raihan Hussain and Perrin were scoring freely and making a mockery of the run-chase.

Hussain (51) was eventually caught behind off Mitch Howard's first ball. Ubaid picked up a consolation caught and bowled, but Perrin (62) saw his team home in the one-sided contest.
